Legal Systems Advocate: This position is for an experienced Legal Systems Advocate who will support victims as they navigate criminal, civil and other legal proceedings. The Legal Systems Advocate is supervised by the Legal Systems Advocacy Program (LSAP) Manager. They will prepare victims for legal proceedings, review legal and court documents, provide orientation and interpretation to victims, and conduct up-to-date safety planning and risk assessment. The program assists victims, one-on-one, with safety planning, peer support, accurate information on domestic violence, resources and referrals, problem-solving and accompaniment.

PRIMARY JOB RESPONSIBILITIES

- 1) Make immediate contact with victims of a domestic violence crime to offer:
 - A) Support services and advocacy;
 - B) Support in gaining an understanding of their legal rights and how the various legal systems (criminal, civil, immigration and child protection) interact;
 - C) Guidance as they determine their needs and develop options;
 - D) Accompaniment to legal, criminal justice, court, child protection appointments.
- 2) Monitor the batterer's criminal case and assist victims in voicing their needs and concerns within the criminal justice system.
- 3) Assist victims in understanding and navigating prosecution of their cases, including how they are being perceived by different legal systems as they determine their next steps.
- 4) Identify unintended consequences and barriers as they occur case-by-case, and develop solutions and options with the LSAP Program Manager.
- 5) Provide advocacy in various off-site locations throughout Marin County as requested.
- 6) Provide crisis intervention counseling, safety planning, and information about domestic violence.
- 7) Provide referrals to community resources.
- 8) Assess the children's needs and make appropriate referrals.
- 9) Maintain positive working relationships with prosecution, law enforcement, courts, child protection, and other County agencies.
- 10) Maintain documentation as required.
- 11) Follow procedures and maintain absolute confidentiality regarding records and communications with participants.
- 12) Assist the LSAP Program Manager in tracking data for evaluation of program outcomes

QUALIFICATIONS AND REQUIREMENTS

- 1) 2 years' experience providing legal advocacy for domestic violence victims, from 911 to case disposition in the criminal justice system OR 3 years related experience, education or training in a related field.
